I GOT SICK THEN I GOT BETTER

written & performed by JENNY ALLEN
directed by JAMES LAPINE & DARREN KATZ

I Got Sick Then I Got Better is a comic riff on one woman's adventures after falling down the medical rabbit hole. Diagnosed with and treated for ovarian cancer in 2005, writer and performer Jenny Allen (The New Yorker, The New York Times) tells her story of the harrowing tailspin she took following her diagnosis, combining biting humor with searing emotion in a witty, bittersweet monologue that highlights the personal and family collateral damage a life-threatening illness brings.

A suggested donation of $10 will go to Lowell General Hospital Team*Walk* for CancerCare. Tickets may be purchased at www.teamwalk.org. Click on Team*Walk* Store and scroll down to Jenny Allen.
